DID YOU KNOW

THAT MALE PRISONERS ARE HELD IN WOMEN'S PRISONS IN SCOTLAND?

That's right

Women's prisons are actually mixed sex

This is because the Scottish Prison Service allows male prisoners to be housed in women's prisons on the basis of their gender identity. Male anatomy is not a consideration.[1]

The Scottish Prison Service did not consult any organisation representing the interests of women in prison when developing the policy that allows this.

We think this is wrong.
We think this puts women in prison at risk.

KEEP PRISONS SINGLE SEX XX
